

A Starved Acquaintance

I'm heart hungry
for a letter;
I'll tell you what I'll do—Eat the first epistle that comes direct from you

Your friend

I can't think that I would answer your card after some days and you thought that I had forgotten you. But I haven't mind, but that I don't forget me
I want to be to be there this time
well, I hope you are the same and I am hoping to hear from you
